9. General Contract Terms

9.1 Subcontracting

Suppliers may not subcontract any part of this work to another company without Mkhulu's written permission first. If you subcontract without permission, Mkhulu may end your contract immediately.

9.2 Extension, Reduction, or Suspension

Mkhulu may extend, reduce, suspend, or change the volume of work at any time, based on project needs, budget, or performance. This will be communicated to you in writing. You will only be paid for work actually instructed and completed.

9.3 Ending the Contract

- Mkhulu may end the contract immediately, without notice, if the supplier commits a serious breach (for example: a serious safety incident caused by your negligence, fraud, dishonesty, working without a valid Purchase Order, or repeated non-compliance after being warned).
- For reasons other than a serious breach, either party may end the contract by giving the other party 14 (fourteen) calendar days written notice.
- If the contract ends for any reason, you will be paid for all correctly completed and approved work up to the date the contract ends, and for no other amount.

9.4 Confidentiality

You must keep all project information confidential, and may not share drawings, routes, schedules, or other project details with anyone outside your own company, without Mkhulu's written permission.

9.5 Anti-Bribery and Ethical Conduct

The supplier nor their employees are permitted to offer, give, or accept any bribe, gift, or improper benefit connected to this RFQ or any resulting work. Any breach of this may result in immediate termination and may be reported to the relevant authorities.
