1. Background

Mkhulu Electro Distribution Projects (Pty) Ltd has been awarded, through a competitive bidding process issued by NTCSA, the construction of the overhead transmission line in Perseus Zeus Section C.

The works involve the construction of a new 109. km Section C of the 765 kV single circuit overhead transmission line between Tower 526 in Edenville Free State province to Tower 778 near Copperville in Gauteng province, forming part of the overall 434 km Perseus–Zeus 765 kV line.

This project is a key component of the Cape Phase 4 Strengthening Scheme, aimed at improving the stability and capacity of the national grid, while also providing a backup power transfer route (N-1 contingency) beyond 2028.

The full Perseus–Zeus line has been divided into four construction sections (A, B, C & D), and this advert covers Section C only.

2. Scope of Work/ Services required

Mkhulu Electro Distribution Projects (Pty) Ltd. requires the appointment of a qualified Waste Management service provider.

The appointed service provider will support the project team in ensuring the collection, transportation and disposal of waste in the campsite. Waste will be transported to the nearest registered landfill site. The service provider must provide evidence of compliance to all applicable legislation and client requirements.

These services will be for as and when required, and the opportunity may be awarded to one or more service providers, or not awarded at all, at the sole discretion of Mkhulu Electro Distribution Projects (Pty) Ltd.

A site visit to be able to assess and price the work can be requested in order to ensure that the pricing is competitive and market-related.

The service providers are required to submit pricing for the items listed below to ensure that quotations are competitive and aligned with current market rates.

3. Pricing Schedule (To be completed by service provider)

Tel.: ++27 (0) 11 814 4169
Fax.: ++27 (0) 11 814 8149
E mail: info@mkhulu-edp.co.za

Suppliers may not subcontract any part of this work to another company without Mkhulu's written permission first. If you subcontract without permission, Mkhulu may end your contract immediately.

13.2 Extension, Reduction, or Suspension

Mkhulu may extend, reduce, suspend, or change the volume of work at any time, based on project needs, budget, or performance. This will be communicated to you in writing. You will only be paid for work actually instructed and completed.

13.3 Ending the Contract

- Mkhulu may end the contract immediately, without notice, if the supplier commits a serious breach (for example: a serious safety incident caused by your negligence, fraud, dishonesty, working without a valid Purchase Order, or repeated non-compliance after being warned).
- For reasons other than a serious breach, either party may end the contract by giving the other party 14 (fourteen) calendar days written notice.
- If the contract ends for any reason, you will be paid for all correctly completed and approved work up to the date the contract ends, and for no other amount.

13.4 Confidentiality

You must keep all project information confidential, and may not share drawings, routes, schedules, or other project details with anyone outside your own company, without Mkhulu's written permission.

13.5 Anti-Bribery and Ethical Conduct

The supplier nor their employees are permitted to offer, give, or accept any bribe, gift, or improper benefit connected to this RFQ or any resulting work. Any breach of this may result in immediate termination and may be reported to the relevant authorities.

13.6 Compliance with Labour Laws

You must comply with all South African labour laws, including the Basic Conditions of Employment Act, the Labour Relations Act, and COIDA, for all of your workers on this project.

13.7 Force Majeure

Neither party will be held responsible for a delay or failure to perform caused by an event beyond their reasonable control (for example: a natural disaster, war, or a government-ordered shutdown), provided the affected party tells the other party in writing as soon as reasonably possible.

13.8 Disputes

If you disagree with a decision made by Mkhulu under this RFQ or any resulting contract, first raise it in writing with your Mkhulu site contact. If it cannot be resolved this way within 10 (ten) working days, either party may refer the matter to mediation or arbitration in South Africa before going to court.

13.9 Governing Law and Language

This RFQ and any resulting contract are governed by the laws of the Republic of South Africa. All documents, communication, and instructions will be in English

14. Additional Information and Disclaimer

Mkhulu Electro Distribution Projects (Pty) Ltd reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to award this RFQ in whole or in part, to one or more service providers, or not to award at all.

The issuance of this RFQ does not constitute a commitment to award any contract or to engage with any service provider.

Mkhulu further reserves the right to:

- Cancel or withdraw this RFQ at any time without prior notice
- Not award the lowest or any quotation received
- Request additional information, clarification, or supporting documentation from any service provider
- Negotiate with one or more service providers
- Appoint multiple service providers where deemed necessary

Only successful service providers will be contacted. If no communication is received within the validity period, the submission should be considered unsuccessful.

Mkhulu may ask any supplier for more information, clarification, or documents at any time during evaluation.

All costs incurred by service providers in the preparation and submission of quotations shall be for their own account.

Further information, including the detailed scope of work and specifications, may be provided to shortlisted or selected service providers during the evaluation process.

By submitting a quotation, you confirm that you have satisfied yourself on all commercial, technical, operational, environmental, legal, and site-related matters relevant to this work, and that you will not later claim you were unaware of something contained in, or reasonably to be understood from, this RFQ and its attachments.
